

MINOR IN ASIAN STUDIES

---

The minor provides an introduction to the study of Asian languages and culture. To students of Asian descent it also serves to provide a better appreciation of themselves and of their heritage.

Majors or minors in Asian Studies must receive no less than a C- in any course that is used to satisfy the major.

Code	Title	Credits
Required Courses (8 Credits)
	Select one year of language study in either Chinese or Japanese. <sup>1</sup>	8
Content Courses on Asia (10 Credits)
	Select one course in the civilization or culture of the country whose language is being studied, and select additional courses in Asian Studies <sup>2</sup>	10
Total Credits		18

<sup>1</sup> Students with language proficiency in these or other Asian languages may select 8 credits in other Asian Studies courses.

<sup>2</sup> Up to 8 transferred credits from study abroad may be applied toward the minor.